KAUAI NOTES.

Christmas Festivities at Kealia-Cold Weather-Concert at Lihue.

The residents on the Mahee Sugar Plantation observed the holidays in splendid style.

On Christmas eve, a large company gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blaisdell, at Kapaa, to enjoy the well-known hospitalities of the family. Preparations were made in no half way manner to assure the enjoyment of the evening to the fullest extent by all present.

A large tree well filled with gifts was one of the principal attractions.
So numerous were the amusements, and so heartily were they appreciated, that the party did not break up till a late hour.

Christmas day was celebrated with a course of horse racing, wrestling, tugs-of-war, etc. Some of the races were phenomenal in several ways, adding to the enjoyment of such an occasion.

Christmas evening, in the absence of Col. Z. S. Spalding, who usually gives the Christmas dinner, Col. and Mrs. R. C. Spalding gathered a number of their friends at the residence at Kealia, the occasion for which was a dinner. Those who once have dined with them, always receive other invitations with greater pleasure, knowing the pleasant manner in which they are received and entertained.

On New Year's eve a company of guests assembled at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blaisdell to watch the old year out and the new in. The last hours of the old year flew all too rapidly in such company, yet the new received a hearty welcome.

For several weeks past Kauai has been visited by some rather cold weather, the thermometer registering away down to 64, when people began to tell snowing yarns. A heavy thunder storm passed over the island Thursday night, causing a change in the weather.

Mechanics are busy now putting in a large lot of new machinery in the Kealia sugar mill.

Friday evening a concert was given at Lihue in the interest of the Kauai Industrial School. Miss Dale, music teacher in Oahu College, had charge of it. If people of Honolulu think they are the only ones who are to enjoy the sweet music of so sweet a singer, the Kauaians will just fool them a couple of times. The program was a long one, and while Miss Dale was to appear but twice by it, the audience concluded differently, and she had to respond every time to a hearty encore. Miss Dale's efforts at Lihue were very much appreciated and she will return to her duty at the College, followed with the kindest wishes and a strong desire by the "Garden Islanders" for another opportunity to listen to her.

HILO JOURNAL.

On New Year's eve the young and old assembled at Court House Chambers and had a dance. The Hall has ever appeared beautiful on occasions of this nature, but this time there was a new departure. It was dressed very prettily and was admired by all. The floor committee were:
W. Vanatta, N. Wilfong, Chas. H.
Hitchcock. There was a good number present from the neighboring plantations. The good time was kept up to the early morning. No rest till morn when youth and pleasure meet. Refreshments were served all p. m.

There was some fine surf-riding at Hilo on the 6th and 7th, reminding one of old times.

There has been a new Road Board nominated. They are Mr. A. B.
Loebenstien, Major Baker, Hilo, Mr.
B. H. Scholtz, Honoum.

All the mills are in full blast, and making splendid sugar as usual.

ARE YOUR CHILDREN SUBJECT TO COUGHS?

As a preventive and cure for croup, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no rival. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. There is not the least danger in giving it to children, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by all dealers.
Benson, Smith & Co., agents.

In selecting your Christmas Presents don't forget that a Picture is among the very best and that the place to get such things is at King Bros., Hotel Street.
